SOUTH WIMBLEDON, ST PETER

Ref: SOU10

Status	still used for worship (not Anglican)
Borough	Merton
Present parish	SOUTH WIMBLEDON , HOLY TRINITY & ST PETER
Built	1911
Build architect	Greenaway & Newberry

Further information	Originally a brick mission church started in 1901 as a plant from All Saints parish. The much larger permanent building was completed in 1911 and it became a separate parish in 1912. From 1942 it became associated with Holy Trinity. A full description is available on the CCC report. There was a single bell. It was considered for closure as early as 1948. The living was suspended 1972 (i.e. no further priest appointed) and the parish merged with Holy Trinity in 1974. The building was declared redundant in 1982 and leased from 1983 to the United Church of Jesus Christ (Apostolic) which was still using it in 2006.
